Under the Stars

Author's Notes:
Just a quick little drabble I came up with. This was awkward to write because of the word limit and I had to take out some words from the original.

The white specks in the sky illuminated the grass Mark and Randy were lying on. Tonight was a good night for the two to ditch the band and go watch the stars before returning home. Randy liked doing this because it made him feel serene and at this time, he was so deep in concentration that he began to think about the meaning of life.

"Hey Mark?", Randy asked.
"Yeah?"
"Have you ever wondered about the true meaning of life? Like how we all exist?"
"It's a long story..."

Randy then yawned and snuggled onto Mark's shoulder before falling asleep.
